

60 Second OHS and Workers' Compensation Executive-Self Assessment

Use this 60 second self-assessment checklist to determine whether you are protecting yourself, your organisation and its employees whilst maximising the financial opportunities associated with your workers' compensation insurance.

1. Can you quantify the actual cost of workers' compensation in your business when taking into account all of the direct and indirect costs?	Yes	No
2. Do you have a clear financial target for your workers' compensation premium over the next three years?	Yes	No
3. Over the past 18 months, have you formally assessed or benchmarked your workers' compensation insurer/agent performance in the areas of pricing, claims management and 'value added' services?	Yes	No
4. Do you have a dedicated internal expert resource(s) in place to manage OHS and workers' compensation within your business?	Yes	No
5. Do you believe there is optimal connectivity between your OHS (strategy and prevention) approach and your workers' compensation (financial and rehabilitation) management system?	Yes	No
6. Has your organisation completed an OHS Due Diligence review to align with the new OHS laws introduced on 1 January 2012 in NSW, QLD, ACT and NT?	Yes	No
7. Has your organisation completed an OHS Due Diligence review to prepare for the new OHS laws to be introduced on 1 January 2013 in Vic, Tas, SA and WA?	Yes	No
8. Has your organisation identified its key operational OHS risks and developed a strategy or action plan to address them?	Yes	No
9. Is your executive/management team aware of the changes to officers' liability and the associated personal exposures and penalties proposed under the new OHS laws?	Yes	No

If you have answered no to any of the above questions, you may have an exposure or opportunity that is not being managed or capitalised on.

Aon Hewitt provides you with the opportunity to have an initial, no cost meeting with a subject matter specialist who can provide solutions.
